

JUSTICE IS COMING

For people with Disability

MEDIA RELEASE: May 27th, 2013

Congratulations to the Hon Kelly Vincent D4d for her sustained efforts in pursuing this issue.

Attorney General, The Hon John Rau (ALP) must be recognised for his leadership and commitment to resolving this situation that on any scale is an aberration and black mark on our community. Supported by Premier Jay Weatherill, this issue is now likely to be resolved in an appropriate manner.

It is important we provide feedback around this issue

Input from all stakeholders will be valued by Mr Rau and Mr Weatherill

Please find attached two version of the Discussion Paper (standard and easy-read) and a link to the website, for circulation to your groups. By distributing this information widely only good outcomes will eventuate

A new Disability Justice Plan is being created for South Australia. We want to improve access to justice and safeguard the rights of people with disability.

We want to understand what support is needed and how people with disability can be better protected.

Take part in the community consultation and tell us what you think needs to change and what you think of proposed changes to the law.
