MEDIA RELEASE: January 23rd, 2014

With less than 8 weeks to the SA State Election the political world locally is getting very interesting.

Without doubt one of the biggest discussion points pre-election will be disability or more succinctly the "National Disability Insurance Scheme" and the significant additional funding the State must deliver by 2019.

For many of us our hearts, our souls and countless hours of lobbying for improvement now hang in the balance.

What do our political leaders really think about Disability issues??

Premier Jay Weatherill has confirmed his attendance and will be delighted to speak at a special.

Disability Public Meeting
"My Hopes, My Dreams"
Thursday February 27th
12.00 Noon-2.00 pm

Invitations are currently being distributed to other key speakers.

The Hon Kelly Vincent MLC (D4d) has already confirmed her attendance.

Please put this day, date & time in your diary, 27/02/2014 - 12.00pm to 2.00pm the venue will be advised shortly.

Please advise this event to your clients, staff, networks and mailing lists.

We expect over 300 attendees.

While the agenda is currently being finalised we are hopeful we will be able to ask questions from disability stakeholders.

If you have a question you would like to be considered please email Disability Speaks by Friday 21st February.

Regrettably not all questions will be possible in the time available.

This will be the 8th Major disability sector event proudly hosted by the Intellectual Disability Association SA, since 2010.

No doubt people with disabilities, families, carers and sector employees will find this day highly informative.

Nothing beats hearing what's going to happen in the future more than hearing it from our political leaders.
