

The Power of Sport

MEDIA RELEASE: June 18th, 2014

The power of sport to educate the wider community cannot be overlooked.

The need for an AFL Disability Inclusion day is embracing and compelling.

There seems daily reminders of the positive messages we can present.

Socceroo Mark Bresciano spoke powerfully as a person, not as a sports super star with his simple pre World Cup gesture.

It is in our Australian cultural to give a hand to a mate or person in need.

Disability is not a defining characteristic.

It is simply an opportunity for our community to recognise, embrace and support.

Congratulations Mark Bresciano, a wonderful moment!

And congratulations to whoever the nameless faceless official who sent the young lad out to be part of the World Cup extravaganza. Too many other officials would have sent someone else to this theatre.

Will we ever see kids with disability presenting premiership medals on AFL Grand Final Day?

I certainly hope so.

David Holst

Chair - Disability Speaks Steering Committee & Chair, Intellectual Disability Association of S.A (IDASA)

Mob. 0418 555 683

Web. www.disabilityspeaks.com.au

Email. disabilityspeaks@internode.on.net

www.everyaustraliancounts.org.au

NDIS | Revolutionising disability services

Disability Speaks is run by the Intellectual Disability Association of South Australia (IDASA) and will distribute on behalf of any organization that meets suitable criteria online information that is of wide disability community interest via our database that now numbers nearly 4,000 recipients for Government, advocacy groups and other major disability organizations. We aim in the lead up to elections, state or federal, we can distribute policy and support information from political groups. Such distribution is not in any way endorsement by Disability Speaks. From time to time Disability Speaks will also distribute media releases commenting on developments in the disability sector. We strongly encourage you to forward all releases to your friends, clients and disability supporters and encourage them to subscribe direct. To do so simply send an email with the subject "subscribe" to the address below, to unsubscribe please use "unsubscribe" in the subject line instead.