

NDIS Flinders University Evaluation

MEDIA RELEASE: August 12th, 2014

Please find attached a letter of introduction from National Institute of Labour Studies (NIL) Flinders University.

Firstly and most importantly, NILs is currently recruiting parents to take part in qualitative interviews. Attached are the flyers about recruitment of participants for this component of the NILs Evaluation. Could you please pass on the information and distribute, subject to the provisos below as widely as possible? Or perhaps you could even suggest some prospective interviewees?

NILs are happy for this recruitment flyer to be distributed electronically (i.e. via mail or electronic newsletter) but have asked that it not be distributed on social media (i.e. Facebook or Twitter).
